Our passion for music and art is the drive behind Meze Headphones. We created our range of headphones and earphones with this aspect in mind. We created them as if for ourselves. Meze Headphones has stood by its values since the beginning of the company. We did not follow trends and let them influence the audio quality and design of our headphones. They are timeless objects that will not go out of style the next season. We achieved this through patience and dedication.

Giovanni Rana, Italy's renowned producer of fresh pasta, has been bringing high quality, artisanal fresh pasta to the table for over 50 years. The family owned and operated company began in 1962 on the outskirts of Verona, Italy, when a young Giovanni Rana began making fresh, hand-made pasta in his own kitchen, creating recipes and offering freshly prepared filled pastas for local residents.

Giovanni Rana Pastificio & Cucina brings the passion and commitment to high quality, artisanal pasta to the U.S. in the form of a full-service restaurant, where fresh pasta is made on site daily in it's Pasta Studio, and hand-selected rare and regional Italian products and prepared foods are available to take home.

Since its founding in 2004, KIND® has been on a mission to make the world a little kinder one snack and one act at a time. KIND was born out of our founder's desire to create a snack that was delicious and nutritious, wholesome and convenient. What began as a line of premium Fruit & Nut bars sparked the creation of an entirely new healthier snacking category. Today, KIND has a family of snacks that offer solutions for a variety of different occasions, inspiring consumers to "LIVE KIND. every day.™"

Our recipes include nutrient-rich, simple and premium ingredients like whole nuts, seeds, whole grains, pieces of fruit and spices. All of our snacks are gluten free and do not contain genetically engineered ingredients. To learn more about KIND and to join our Movement, visit kindsnacks.com.
